Bright and comfortable

Fans are a necessity in Malaysian homes, particularly in our hot and humid weather. When the ceiling fan not only functions to cool down the space, but also illuminates it, you can be sure you've got a winner. The Panasonic F-M15G2 LED 5-blade ceiling fan not only promises enhanced safety features and greater air delivery, but also gives you enhanced safety features that ensure a worry-free environment for your family. The Panasonic LED light has a light distribution mode that varies the lighting coverage and intensity, so you can have lightning that will work for any occasion at home.
