

The Winners of the Watch & Jewellery Award of The Year at A Journey Through Time VII

Tan Sri Dato' Dr Francis Yeoh delivering his speech at A Journey Through Time VII's closing gala dinner

LUXURY GRANDEUR

Asia's grandest luxury watch and jewellery showcase, A Journey Through Time VII at Starhill Gallery, once again awed enthusiasts with its exquisite display of prestigious collections from world-renowned brands. by YONG WEI JIAN

Amy Chia and Catherine Lee

Sim Wei Keong, Ho Ricky, and Ng Wei Kee

Antoine Bakhache of Mouawad posing with Dato' Sri Dr Ng Yen Yen & Miss Maja Universe 2013 wearing the L'Incomparable after winning the Tourism Malaysia Most Revered Award

Model showcasing Rebellion's highlight timepiece, the Magnum Tourbillon T-14, with a limited edition of 10 pieces with carbon fibre case

Christophe Viguerie, Wong Ching Lan, Steven Holtzman and Qi Zheng

Minister of Tourism & Culture Malaysia, Y.B. Dato' Seri Mohamed Nazri

Yannick Boyv and Tan Sri Dato' Dr Francis Yeoh

Endorsed by the Ministry of Tourism and Culture Malaysia, the eight-day event saw visitors enjoying guided watch tours, stunning fashion parades and delectable gala dinners, all of which culminated in the highly anticipated grand finale: the Starhill Gallery Watch and Jewellery of the Year Awards. The judging panel for this closing event was represented by renowned local and international experts, who selected winners like the Maitres du Temps Chapter Three: Reveal as favourite men's watch and Hublot's Masterpiece MP-05 LaFerrari as most complicated timepiece. Chairman of Tourism Malaysia Dato' Sri Dr Ng Yen Yen closed the ceremony by presenting the Tourism Malaysia Most Revered Award to multinational jeweller/watchmaker Mouawad for its preeminent L'Incomparable diamond necklace. A new twist to this year's proceedings was the first-ever appearance of Swiss Auctions to auction off over 200 of the world's rarest timepieces to collectors.

Saad Yahya, Alison Collingridge, and Tony Collingridge