What

As in previous years, the highlight of the grand finale of A Journey Through Time (AJTT) VII, one of Asia's grandest luxury watch and jewellery showcases, was the highly anticipated Starhill Gallery Watch and Jewellery of the Year Awards. A panel of esteemed judges comprising Tan Sri Francis Yeoh, Joseph Yeoh, Su Jian Xian, Hirota Masayuki, Rainer Siegal and Charles Sutanto, were responsible for picking the winners in seven categories. Among them were Damiani's Sophia Loren necklace for The Timeless Jewellery Award, Hublot's Masterpiece MP-05 "LaFerrari" for Watch with Complications in Movement Award, and Mouwad's L'Incomparable necklace for The Tourism Malaysia Most Revered Award. (Turn to page 168 for a report on the winning watches.) Apart from the awards, the evening was also enlivened with a performance by Australia's Got Talent 2009 winner, Mark Vincent, who charmed everyone with his powerful vocals. This elegant affair capped another exciting instalment of AJTT that included the debut of Swiss Auctions that auctioned off 200 of the world's rarest timepieces and the opening of Italian jewellery Damiani boutique.
