

November

Malaysia

What in the WORLD is happening this month?

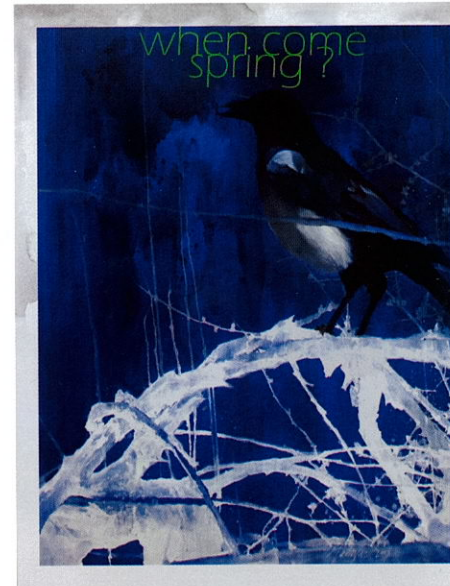

A JOURNEY THROUGH TIME V
November 22-

Malaysia's biggest haute horology and jewellery fair returns for the seven consecutive year with a host of stellar brands that will be unveiling their latest novelties. It will be held for eight days at Starhill Gallery starhillgallery.co

A FLOWERING TREE
November 8-10

Pushpika, a poor village girl, helps her family earn money by selling flowers. One night, she discovers a wonderful secret that allows her to become a flowering tree! Her life takes on a dramatic turn when others find out of her gift. Presented by the Box of Delights, the same company responsible for the delightful Roald Dahl's Fantastic Mr Fox, this play will be staged at PJ Live Arts. pjlivearts.my

WHEN COME SPRING?
November 14-December 31

Zac Lee's new exhibition, When Come Spring?, at Shalini Ganendra Fine Art Gallery highlights pertinent issues facing modern Malaysia. The artworks provide an elegant social commentary that fuses photography with the renaissance painting style synonymous with Le shaliniganendra.com

GEORGE TOWN LITERARY FESTIVAL

November 29-December 1

The George Town Literary Festival returns to Penang with 18 acclaimed writers from the United States, Canada, the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, India, Australia, Italy and Malaysia. The theme this time around is 'The Ties that Bind' and it looks at these writers' connections with their hometowns and how they deal with hopes, love, loss, memories and history within this context. Malaysia's Datuk Lat, writer and cartoonist of the iconic Kampung Boy comic series, headlines the roster this year. gtlfestival.blogspot.com